

Introducing...

Craig Forman

"This is an unprecedented era – the only constant is change. Old structures are crumbling and the consumer is in control like never before. But vision isn't enough. The winners will be those who can leverage a breakthrough idea and combine it with great customer experience and smooth execution. Let's get started." - Craig Forman

Craig Forman created the business strategy for EarthLink's $1 billion consumer business. He led Yahoo's News Division to #1 in traffic, ahead of CNN. Recently, he served as the Executive Chairman of Where, a leading location-based mobile media applications and advertising company bought by PayPal in 2011. He is the Executive Chairman of Appia, the fast growing mobile applications discovery and download marketplace, and serves on the boards of McClatchy Co. and Yellow Media. He has also successfully started and advised several successful software, content, interactive TV and mobile startups. He was part of the founding team to take search engine pioneer Infoseek public.

Early in his career, Craig was a WSJ foreign correspondent and bureau chief in Japan. He was part of a team that was a Pulitzer Prize finalist for its coverage of the 1991 Persian Gulf War. In addition, Craig has appeared on CNN and NBC providing news commentary. He is the author of Amazon top-selling book, *Be Luckier in Life*, a career guide for how the successful people create more luck and positive change in their lives and in business.

Craig Forman uses his operating experience and Board oversight to speak about consumer engagement in the fast changing digital landscape. He is available to speak about innovation and change, corporate leadership and teamwork, product creation and development, and the role of mobile and the internet in the changing telecommunications and media environment.

As the EVP and President of EarthLink Inc.'s Consumer Business unit, Forman created the strategy for roughly $1 billion in revenue and $300 million in Ebitda. He also oversaw for all aspects of the group's operations including product, sales and marketing, IT, infrastructure, and customer service. Under Forman's leadership, EarthLink achieved monthly value-added services revenue growth of 500% in only three and a half years.

Prior to EarthLink, Forman was Yahoo!'s VP and GM of Media and Information, leading the Yahoo! News division to the top spot, surpassing CNN. Forman has been a serial entrepreneur and is a Board member and adviser for several startups at the intersection of media, communications and technology.
